

ashurst

2019

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION & WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP ROADSHOW

Brisbane 12th March • Hobart 13th March • Darwin 19th March • Melbourne 20th March

Perth 13th March • Sydney 9th April • Adelaide 10th April • Canberra 5th June

MORNING AGENDA: DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

8:15am	Registration Opens	10:30am	Morning Tea and Networking
8:45am	Welcome from Public Sector Network or Chairperson
9:00am	Keynote Opening Address Diversity and Inclusivity in the Australia Public Sector: examining existing workplace policies to determine where to focus next <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Developing an effective method of measuring how successful your existing Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) strategies are and why D&I is essential to your agency; - Understanding the critical economic factors supporting diversity and inclusivity as a departmental focus; and - Examining international best practice to enable a holistic approach to design new processes and policies to promote diversity in the Australian Public Sector. 	11:00am	Developing and building a cultural capability <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understanding the skills, knowledge, and practices needed for staff to undertake their role in a culturally informed and supportive manner; - Developing appropriate mechanisms to regularly promote and facilitate discussions to improve cultural capability within your department; and - Highlighting how the Australian Public Sector Commission's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultural Capability Framework can be used as a jumping off point when developing your strategies to support diverse and inclusive cultural capability in your agencies. Letitia Hope, First Assistant Secretary - Indigenous Affairs Group, Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet
9:30am	Strengthening management accountability by building leadership capabilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What leaders need to know when managing diverse teams: it's not just gender diversity that needs to be part of the discussion; - Developing leaders who can avoid the risk of 'group-think,' and other limiting thought behaviours; and - Educating leaders on how to create high-performance business units by leveraging their team's diverse perspectives and backgrounds. Belinda Casson, Branch Manager - People, Culture and Capability, Department of Education and Training	11:30am	Panel Discussion: How to recruit & retain without discrimination One of the most significant risks to a D&I workplace is what is known as unconscious bias or hiring, and promoting, in our image. Extensive research, from local and international sources, has long proven the benefits of D&I in the workplace both economically and in the areas of efficiency and problem-solving. This panel discussion examines how to; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Develop recruitment strategies to generate the most diverse pool of suitable candidates; - Link your talent management and succession planning to your D&I strategy; - Use D&I to increase your public recognition and enhance your agencies reputation; - Establish measurable D&I KPIs, analytics and reporting for your current, and future, recruitment needs. Panellists: Rachael Jackson, General Manager - People and Planning, Department of Industry, Innovation and Science Robyn Beutel, Diversity and Inclusion Policy - Employment Policy Group, Australian Public Service Commission Jamie Penrose, General Manager - People and Communications Group, IP Australia Natalee George, Assistant Director, Department of Health Ayesha Nawaz, Senior Executive Adviser to the Secretary, Attorney-General's Department
10:00am	Delivering more efficient execution of workplace diversity and inclusivity programs to increase productivity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Determining what makes an effective D&I strategy and the positive impacts getting it right has on your team; - Defining the correct Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) to measure to deliver clear and concise reporting of department performance and Return on Investment (ROI); - Highlighting the importance of getting D&I working by analysing existing programmes for opportunities for improvement. Melissa Hennessy, Assistant Director - People Capability and Recruitment, Department of Infrastructure, Regional Development and Cities
		12:15pm	Closing remarks from the Chair
		12:25pm	Lunch and Networking

AFTERNOON AGENDA: WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

12:40pm	Registration
1:00pm	Welcome from Public Sector Network & Chairperson
1:15pm	Opening Keynote Future-proofing equality for the next generation This session focuses on the strategies and commitments the Public Sector is making to ensure gender equality for the future generations. Kate Carnell, Ombudsman, Australian Small Business and Family Enterprise Ombudsman
1:45pm	My Journey – One on One with a Public Sector Leader My journey brings to Public Sector Network's Women in Leadership Roadshow 2019 an intimate, personable, and insightful session detailing the challenges, mistakes, biases and persistent obstacles female leaders in the Australian Public Sector have faced and overcome. Each city will host a special guest from the Public Sector to take us on a detailed, and educational, journey through their careers, leaving attendees with insights into how to navigate their successful career paths. Kate Palmer, Chief Executive Officer, Sport Aus
2:15pm	Pathways to leadership: examining the policies and strategies advancing female leadership in the Australian Public Sector <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understanding and identifying the most persistent barriers to leadership; Recognising the successful policies and practices enabling women to attain leadership positions; and - Examining women's current representation at the executive and public administration levels of the Australian Public Sector and the steps needed to achieve accurate 50/50 representation. Prof. Helen Sullivan, Director of the Crawford School of Public Policy, The Australian National University
2:45pm	Afternoon Tea and Networking

3:15pm	Creating power parity: gender equality only works if power is equally distributed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Measuring the power held by female leaders across the sectors of the Australian Public Sector; - Examining the capacity to influence decision-making by highlighting the formal power, public perception and governance of the leadership position; and - Smashing through the glass wall: ensuring female representation across a multitude of sectors not just the traditionally feminised sectors of the public sector. Elizabeth Carroll, Chief Legal Counsel, IP Australia
3:45pm	Panel Discussion: Building on past successes to further progress female leadership in the Australian Public Sector <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identifying systemic and structural barriers to increased female leadership and the reforms and drivers needed to overcome them; - Improving the understanding of department heads and front-line managers on female leadership and embedding workplace reforms to create a level playing field for new and existing recruits; - Examining how unconscious bias can manifest in the workplace and how the use of bias disruptors can be successfully implemented to improve the department's recruitment processes; and - The power of part-time: increasing the capacity, and usage, of flexible work arrangements for both male and female employees and the role this plays in helping to break down the glass ceiling. Panellists: Cheryl-Anne Moy, Deputy Secretary Corporate & Enabling - Chief Operating Officer, Department of Home Affairs Kate Alberry, Director of Environmental Services, Cowra Shire Council Joanne Crowther, Organisational Change Manager, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Ray Johnson APM, Chief Police Officer - ACT Policing, Australian Federal Police (AFP)
4:30pm	Closing remarks
4:40pm	Conference close

About us

Public Sector Network is a young, diverse company that exists to help government break down silos, collaborate, and work together for better outcomes for citizens. We believe that public sector is forced to be one of the most innovative and resourceful industries in the world. Rather than constantly solving the same problem, government can improve citizen services whilst saving time - and money - by sharing and learning from other agencies, departments and councils.

PSN Events Pty Ltd

A Subsidiary of Public Sector Network Unit Trust

ABN - 46 617 870 872
34/60 Margaret Street
Sydney NSW 2010

“

Excellent event, great conversations & a platform to interact with the right government contacts & partner community.

”

“

A very relaxed ambience... customers really letting down their guards not feeling as threatened by industry and vendors.

”

“

Great event from beginning (planning) to end. One of the best events we have sponsored in terms of conversations had at booth, opportunity to promote our brand. PSN did an amazing job of event management. Well done.

”

“

The roadshow was a great way to see what others are up to and provides invaluable networking opportunities to further our learning.

”

BOOK NOW: EVENTS.PUBLICSECTORNETWORK.CO